Both Sides Words Lester Simpson, Music Geonyong Lee

Learning divisions both sides of deep water
Hate without reason, history forgotten

Hard faces trained to kill both sides of high walls
Each side doing God's will, Mea Culpa Jesu

Rain washes all tears both sides of the border
Wide eyed a child's fears who will care for the young ones

Dawn wakes both rich and poor both sides of the watchtower
Daylight brings hope for peace may come with the new day

Sun shines on all men both sides of the barbed wire
New year returns then we rejoice for the Spring comes
