I will sew a braid of gold on grey De-cem-bers rag-ged sleeve
For I bring sto-ries by the hearth de-light in half for-gott-en names
I can take the wea-ry mile and weave a car-pet to your door
I bring church-es all a-glow and car-ols on the mid-night air

Teach the crabbed and ja-ded soul how to give how to re-ceive For Ap-ple logs on fra-grant fires with flick'-ring fac-es in the flames - Guide the dus-ty wand'-rers home safe-ly to your side once more - Col-oured win-dows streaked with snow that gild the con-gre-ga-tions there For rooms are thick with ma-gic now the tree it's soft light throw-ing The

As the year draws on it's days and tir-ed leaves are fall-ing - I can cheer the bitt-er days with tunes to set you sing-ing My young and old shall join and sing to mark the long-est turn-ing From
